

I do not want the no call list altered in any way. I still get way to many calls from people that I do not want to talk to, so do not let some others get away with being able to call us when we do not want any more unwanted calls.